Let's look at this week's story

The Nepalese government has announced that, from September, climbers aiming for the world's highest mountain will have to pay just over £12,000 ($15,000) during the main climbing season. This is over $4,000 more than the previous permit fee for climbing Mount Everest. There have been concerns that there are too many people climbing the mountain, leaving rubbish and not respecting nature. It is hoped the extra money will go towards protecting the area from tourists.
